

Nic Yungblut, CPA, CA - Chief Financial Officer

Nic Yungblut brings over a decade of strategic finance leadership and public accounting expertise to his role as Chief Financial Officer at Dejero. With nearly six years at the company, he has been instrumental in driving Dejero's financial strategy and supporting its exponential growth trajectory.

Prior to his CFO appointment, Nic served as Vice President of Finance and Director of Finance at Dejero, where he led strategic financial planning and analysis, managed annual budget cycles, and ensured the company maintained optimal capitalization for expansion. His deep understanding of Dejero's business has made him a trusted strategic finance partner in assessing growth opportunities and forecasting market trends.

Before joining Dejero, Nic held senior finance roles at Freshii, where he oversaw financial planning, reporting, and accounting functions while working closely with executive leadership and the Board of Directors. During his tenure, he played a key role in IPO initiatives, creating and presenting revenue forecasts to potential investors. His earlier experience includes nearly five years as a Manager at EY, where he coordinated audit engagements for public and private clients across technology, manufacturing, and public sector industries in the Waterloo to Greater Toronto Area region.

Nic holds a Bachelor of Commerce Honours degree in Accounting from McMaster University and maintains his Chartered Professional Accountant (CPA) and Chartered Accountant (CA) designations. His expertise spans financial reporting, US GAAP, strategic planning, capital raising, and IPO execution, making him well-positioned to guide Dejero's continued financial success and strategic growth initiatives.
