

Michael Stanton, Director, Americas

Michael is responsible for business development, sales team management and growth strategy of Dejero's US business. Michael joined Dejero in 2016 to help accelerate Dejero's live video connectivity solutions.

He is a former journalist and Emmy® award-winning TV news manager, with 15+ years experience in top TV markets. His diverse experience includes working on an ambulance and holding an EMT certification since 2005. Michael leverages his in-depth knowledge of video broadcast technology to solve the connectivity issues our customers face today.